

ANDREA BOCELLI UNDER TUSCAN SKY

Backstage Experience

THE EXPERIENCE

Every year, Andrea Bocelli performs a magnificent open sky concert at Teatro del Silenzio, in Lajatico – Tuscany, his hometown. The theme of this year is Il Canto della Terra (the sing of the land). Bocelli and other international singers with a choir of children from Haiti will enchant the audience.

At the previous night (August 2), the general rehearsal will be hold at the same theater, a magic moment with informality and artists' interaction with the public. For the first time, you will be able to live this experience with exclusivity and comfort. To do so, we prepared a special program for a limited number of people.

You will be welcomed in our open sky lounge for a special cocktail and you will have the opportunity to visit the backstage. You will watch the concert rehearsal from our VIP area, placed on the first rows right in front of the stage. You will have access to our bar throughout the rehearsal to toast this unique experience.

WHAT IT INCLUDES
